The Brookign people have a much higher appreciation of the geutleman's talents and consistency than the residents of San Francisco. Because Mr. Telmage condemns Mormonism in New York, it is not to he taken as conclusive that he would denonnce the "Saints" if he were in Salt Lake City. He has illustrated his facility for "boxing the compass." Here, he was thought to be the enemy of the Chinese, and proposed to wipe out their quarter with 500 men. In Brooklyn, he is their defender. As a specimen blower of not and cold this Brooklyn preacher excels; but as a detached independent comedian, he is a failure.

A PEW days ago it was announced that the Chinese had been shipped town the extensive shoe factory at employed in their stead. It will be remembered that no reason was arreturn to first principles had taken place. There certainly must be some cause, for we all recollect that not long ago the proprietor of the shops was eathuslastic in praise of his Mongolian workmen, and the eastern newspapers referred with pride to the North Adams experiment, as an argument that the Californians were wrong in their objections to Chinese labor. The sudden collapse of the Massachusetts trial after its successful operation for a few years, is furnish for reviving their anti-Chinese raid. They are asking why the shoe factory turned its Mongolians away, and review of the state as Mrs. Mack, on the content of the same of the fine of the state as Mrs. Mack, on the content of the state in behalf of the state in beha workmen.
